QMS Audits' ISO 14001:2015 Internal Auditor course is essential for anybody working to comply with ISO standards.. We go through each of the ISO 14001:2015 requirements, explaining how each works and what is involved.

This training is delivered in a workshop style with loads of class discussion and plenty of time to ask specific questions about your business.

As a class we map out your processes, conduct a SWOT analysis to identify potential opportunities and threats from the external environment as well as the internal strengths and weaknesses.
